June Top Tips

If you play 'five card majors', a short diamond should only be opened with 4-4 in the majors, three diamonds and two clubs.

The incidence of a 1♦ opening bid with this exact distribution is less than 3%. Translation: When partner opens 1♦, assume partner has 4 or more diamonds.

If declarer is playing a suit contract with a short suit in dummy and draws all of dummy's trumps, the inference is that declarer doesn't have any losers in that suit to trump. That, in turn, means it is safe to make discards in this suit.

When discarding, keep length parity with the dummy. If dummy has 4 cards in a suit (AKQ8), and you have 4 cards (9432) one of which (the 9) could conceivably take a trick, be careful about discarding from that suit. Be very careful! Don't!

It is important to count declarer's tricks as the play progresses. If you find yourself on lead and can see that declarer has enough tricks in three suits to make the contract, shift to the 4th suit. Some chance is better than no chance.

Duplicate Etiquette at BAND—Play Nice!

MANNERS ARE IMPORTANT Greet your opponents at the beginning of the round and smile! At the end of the round, they are still your friends...

DEALER ETIQUETTE It is poor etiquette to pull a bidding card before everyone has sorted their hand.

SILENCE IS GOLDEN Conversation stops when you remove your hand from the board.

THINK BEFORE YOU TOUCH Once you have decided on a bid in your mind, then choose the bid from the box. Don't let your fingers do your thinking!

TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE Once the auction is complete, make your opening lead and table the dummy before you write the contract in your private score. Remember to lead face down!

WHAT HAPPENS IN THE CURRENT ROUND...STAYS IN THE CURRENT ROUND Once the round is finished, you may then discuss hands from the current round. Refrain from discussion between hands. Hands from previous rounds should not be discussed during game.

SNAPPING OF YOUR CARDS IS FROWNED UPON And your cards don't like it either!

YOUR MOTHER'S RULE If you can't say something nice, don't say anything at all! Mind your own business ~ No contributing to opponents' conversation.

HAVE FUN! At the end of the day, we are all here to meet new friends and to have a good time.
